Victoria DiNatale is a 22-year-old alumna of Armstrong Atlantic State University with a bachelor's degree in English. As a former victim of severe middle and high school bullying, she now shares her anti-bullying message, "Standing Victorious™," with thousands of students and adults in school assemblies, civic events and churches. Through her advocacy, she has also reached thousands via television, radio, magazine, and online blogs. In 2012, Victoria was asked by school counselor and international author, Raychelle Lohmann, to write a Letter to the Student, which appears as an introduction to Lohmann's book, The Bullying Workbook for Teens: Activities to Help You Deal with Social Aggression and Cyberbullying. She is also the founder of Standing Victorious LLC. As a young, relatable speaker, Victoria has traveled Georgia and South Carolina sharing her eye-opening story and addressing both victims and bullies alike. It is Victoria's life-long mission to spread this anti-bullying message to all 50 states, teaching students that there is hope and help and that suicide is never an option!
